

Ron Moffett
Director of Field Operations,
Michigan Defense Contract Coordination Center

Ron Moffett is Director of Field Operations for the Michigan Defense Contract Coordination Center. In this capacity, he leads the efforts of field staff in working with Michigan-based companies to help them increase business within the defense and government sectors.

Ron has a Bachelor's degree in Economics from Rutgers University and served as an officer in the U.S. Coast Guard. He has held numerous positions with the Michigan Economic Development Corporation and, prior to joining the DC3 team, he was the manager of alternative energy initiatives at the MEDC. In the private sector, Ron spent many years working in the chemical industry for Amoco and Mobil in both manufacturing and marketing positions.
